

We envision a community free
from child abuse

ABOUT US

Children's Advocacy Center of Collin County is a nationally recognized nonprofit organization providing hope to children and families victimized by child abuse. Our proven approach brings experts together under one roof to ensure safety and justice for children. We are the only agency in our community offering services critical to healing, free for life.

OUR MISSION

Our mission is to provide safety, healing, and justice to children victimized by abuse or neglect in Collin County.

OUR GOAL

Our goal is to provide comprehensive, accessible, free services for 100 percent of children and families in Collin County impacted by child abuse or neglect.

CORE SERVICES

Forensic Interviews

Fact-finding interviews conducted by specially trained professionals designed to minimize the number of times a child must tell their story.

Therapy

Evidence-based, trauma-informed interventions that allow child victims and their non-offending family members the chance to heal from abuse.

Family Advocacy and Support Services

Focusing on emotional and economic resource needs of victims and their non-offending family members, the Center provides consistent support from the day they arrive to the end of the criminal trial.

Community Education

Education for caregivers, child care professionals, educators, faith communities, and corporate and civic groups that raises awareness throughout the community on the importance of preventing, recognizing, and reporting child abuse.

OUR LOCATIONS

Los Rios Campus 2205 Los Rios Blvd., Plano, TX 75074 | 972.633.6600

The Speese Campus 1701 Heritage Drive, McKinney, TX 75069 | 972.633.6700

DID YOU KNOW

A report of abuse in Texas is made every 2 minutes.

A child has a greater risk of being sexually abused than being in a car accident.

CACCC has served more than 80,000 children and family members.

KEY FACTS

- Under one roof, we house CACCC staff, law enforcement, and the Texas Department of Family and Protective Services (DFPS).
- Each year, more than 4,000 reports of child abuse or neglect are made here in Collin County.
- For over 30 years, we have provided critical services to children and non-offending family members victimized by abuse and neglect in our community.
- We are the only agency in Collin County co-housing these comprehensive support services, and we do so because our community's children deserve the best childhood possible.
- Exemplifying the highest level of stewardship, the Center has received a rating of four stars on Charity Navigator, the nation's leading charity evaluator for over twelve consecutive years.
- All services are offered to clients at no cost and for as long as help is needed.
- We rely on funding and support from the community to carry out our mission.

OUR CORE VALUES

We are committed to being an organization that is welcoming, safe, respectful, equitable, and inclusive for all clients, staff, and partners.

Integrity

Clients, donors, partners, and staff are treated with dignity and respect.

We operate in a fiscally responsible manner and exhibit the highest level of stewardship.

We adhere to excellence of professional practices and ethical standards.

Collaboration

We rely on the strength of the multidisciplinary team approach.

We work with other community organizations committed to improving the welfare of children.

We embrace teamwork and respect each team member's contribution to the mission.

Excellence

Every child receives exceptional trauma-informed intervention from each member of the team, from the time they are greeted at the front desk until the case is completed.

We place children and families at the center of all we do.

We are innovative in developing solutions, knowledge, partners, and resources.

Empowerment

We promote hope, self-reliance, and strength for our clients and staff members.

We provide an environment that supports multidisciplinary team success.

We serve as a catalyst and coordinator to engage the community in the fight against child abuse.

Jamie Ginden, Community Relations & Marketing Director
jginden@caccollincounty.org

Lynne McLean, Chief Executive Officer
lmclean@caccollincounty.org

Dan Powers, LCSW, Chief Operating Officer
dpowers@caccollincounty.org

www.caccollincounty.org

